

Streetwise Partnership Trust Ltd Organisational Family Tree

There are three management committee meetings a year, held approximately three weeks before each February, June and October trustee meeting.

Ad hoc groups are set up to support parts of the business plan and centre operation as required and are open to any interested trustee or management committee member who have expressed an interest in that particular field.